IV. Reports

REPORTS TO REVIEW	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Letter Grade b) Storm Damage Work c) Override d) Title 1 Walkthrough e) Family Math Night
DISCUSSION NOTES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Officially "A" rated with total of 91 points. A 12 point increase from LY. Only 10 TUSD school received an "A". The district has yet to receive their grade due to several schools in the appeal process. A staff celebration was held on 11/12/25. Planning a student celebration late March/early April. b) Eight classrooms were damaged. Lots of work to be completed: including but not limited to new tile, carpet, drywall, removal of cabinets. A time line has been provided but flexibility is needed for unforeseen delays. c) Override was passed for district funds. Oscar Dotson provided printed handout with details. Some highlights included: teacher salary step increase and PE teachers in all elementary schools. d) Approximately half the team arrived and only had compliments after walkthrough. Special compliments to Focus and Instruction. Feedback given included small bits of info to build off of what's already in place. e) Approximately 45 students attended. Looking for ways to improve event attendance and engage parents.
